

REMARKS

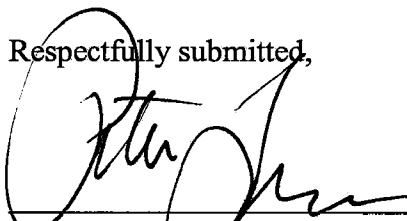

These remarks are in response to the Ex Parte Quayle action dated July 19, 2010. This reply is timely filed. At the time of the Ex Parte Quayle action, claims 1-20 were pending in the present application. The Examiner stated that the present application is in condition for allowance except for the formal matter that Claims 1, 19, and 20. Claims 1, 19, and 20 have been amended in order to remove improper multiple dependency formalities and typographical errors. No new matter has been added.

Applicants have now amended claim 1 to correct the grammatical error. Claims 19 and 20 have been amended to remove improper multiple dependency formalities. Applicants respectfully submit that the aforementioned formal matter has now been addressed such that the present application is now in condition for allowance.

Should the Examiner have further questions or comments with respect to the examination of the present application, it is respectfully requested that the Examiner telephone the undersigned so that further examination of this application can be expedited.

It is believed that no fee is required for this submission. Should the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office determine that additional fees are owed or that any refund is owed for this application, the Commissioner is hereby authorized and requested to charge the required fee(s) and/or credit the refund(s) owed to our Deposit Account No. 06-1050.

Respectfully submitted,
